

The Menorot of Limyra and Judaism in Asia Minor

Vienna, 22.-23.01.2014

Picture credits: Menorot of Limyra © Österreichisches Archäologisches Institut

Venue:

Institut für Judaistik

Universitätscampus, 1090 Wien, Spitalgasse 2, Hof 7.3, Hörsaal 1

Organized by:

Armin Lange, Gerhard Langer (Universität Wien), and Martin Seyer
(Österreichisches Archäologisches Institut)

Sponsored by:

Historisch-Kulturwissenschaftliche Fakultät der Universität Wien
Österreichisches Archäologisches Institut

The Menorot of Limyra and Judaism in Asia Minor

Vienna, 22.-23.01.2014

Organized by Armin Lange, Gerhard Langer, and Martin Seyer

Wednesday, January 22nd 2014
17:00–18:30	The Archaeology of the Jewish Building in Limyra with its Water-Installation and the Menorot
	Martin Seyer, Excavation Report (20 minutes)
	Zeev Weiss, Response to Seyer (20 minutes)
	Andreas Pülz, Response to Seyer (20 minutes)
	Discussion (30 minutes)
19:30	Reception

Thursday, January 23rd 2014; talks are including 15 minutes discussion
9:00-9:45	Mark R. Fairchild, Archaeological Remains and the Jewish Communities in Eastern Rough Cilicia
9:45-10:30	Nadin Burkhardt, New excavation results of the Synagogue in Priene, in comparison with the synagogue of Sardis
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:30	Steven Fine, The Menorot of Limyra and Jewish Art History
11:30-12:15	Eva Synek, Roman and Byzantine Legislation about Jews
12:15-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-14:45	Claudia Rapp, The Image of Jews in Byzantine Literary Texts
14:45-15:30	Armin Lange, Antisemitism in Asia Minor
15:30-15:45	Coffee Break
15:45-16:30	Gerhard Langer, A Rabbinic Perspective on the Jews of Asia Minor